WITT MARES SPONSORS MID-ATLANTIC CONSTRUCTION'S
ANNUAL TOP CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR AWARD

NEWPORT NEWS, VA (08/07/09) - Witt Mares, PLC, a regional accounting and consulting firm serving clients throughout the Mid-Atlantic, announced today that it will be the exclusive sponsor for Mid-Atlantic Construction magazine's annual Contractor of the Year award.

The recipient of the Contractor of the Year award is chosen by the editorial staff of Mid-Atlantic Construction among construction companies entering their information for the magazine's Top General Contractor and Construction Manager survey. This survey is the authoritative report of the leading list of general contractors and construction managers across the region.

The survey results, along with the Contractor of the Year recipient, will be announced by Mid-Atlantic Construction in the spring of 2010. Survey submissions will be due to Mid-Atlantic Construction in early 2010.

"The construction industry has always been an integral part of Witt Mares' practice and we are pleased to sponsor Mid-Atlantic Construction's Contractor of the Year Award," notes Maria B. Marston, CPA, a partner and leader of the Construction Industry Services Team at Witt Mares. "Being a part of a program that recognizes excellence in the industry complements our commitment to helping clients achieve excellence within their own organization."

Contractors wishing to participate in the survey and to be eligible for consideration for the Contractor of the Year award will be able to obtain a survey submission form by visiting the Witt Mares website at www.wittmares.com or the Mid-Atlantic Construction website at www.midatlantic.construction.com later this year when the call for entries will be issued.
