

For Immediate Release

PKF WITT MARES RECOGNIZED
TAX CONSULTANT OF THE YEAR

Newport News, VA (April 20, 2007) Kevin Reilly was awarded the "Excellence in Achievement Award". The Boardroom magazine, the official publication for the Association of Private Club Directors, recognizes industry leaders for their impact, achievements and contributions to the club industry.

Independent panels of industry experts make their selections of individuals based off their projects completed, products introduced, innovative services, etc. The categories include Golf Course, Club House, Tax Consultant, Law, Marketing, etc.

The award was presented at the 80th Annual World Conference on Club Management, in conjunction with the Golf Industry Show this year

PKF Witt Mares is known as one of the largest regional accounting and consulting firms in the United States serving the hospitality industry. PKF Witt Mares publishes Clubs In Town & Country, an annual compilation of club operating data, and Federal Taxes and The Private Club, an annual review of topics of interest to private clubs.

#